OUTLINES.

Up to last night 19 bodies have been taken from the Pocahontas mine, in which an explosion occurred on Wednesday afternoon; forty or fifty more miners are entombed and are probably dead; sixty coffins have been sent to the scene—Near Troy, N. Y., yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock a special train bearing troops to Newport News to embark for Cuba ran into a passenger train killing five people outright and injuring a score; among the killed was a bride who was married the night before—The Massachusetts Democrats yesterday refused to endorse Bryan or Hearst for President, but praised both; John B. Moran, nominee of the Prohibition party and the Independence League for Governor, was endorsed—Insurance rebates were strongly condemned at a meeting of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners at Washington, D. C., yesterday; the iniquities of such dealing were strongly brought out—President Roosevelt in a down pour of rain yesterday, delivered the principal address at the dedication of Pennsylvania's new $13,000,000 capitol at Harrisburg, and went thence to York where he again spoke in the rain from a stand on the fair grounds—President Roosevelt has written the Governor of Arizona warning him that it is rumored that an effort will be made to defeat statehood by fraud in the election—Jno D. Rockefeller in an interview deplores the tendency of the government to stifle individual effort—A crazy motorman, controller in hand, ran his car across New York yesterday at a terrific rate and was finally subdued by half a dozen policemen after several had been injured—Southern soldiers are specially invited to the encampment of Spanish war veterans at Washington October 8th—New York markets: Money on call steady, 3 to 4 1/2 per cent, ruling rate 5, closing bid 3, offered at 4; spot cotton ten points advance, closing quiet and steady, 10.65; flour steady; wheat irregular, No. 2 red, 78 5/8 elevator; corn barely steady, No. 2, 65 elevator; oats steady; mixed, 37 1/2; turpentine firm, 68 to 68 1/2; rosin firm.

William Randolph Hearst may turn out to be the Ben Tillman of New York.

There is no telling. New York may have a case of Hearstistics in November.

How many crimes are committed in the name of "cider" in prohibition Charlotte?

One of Benjamin Franklin's maxims was: "Do as little as you can to repent of." To follow advice like that will save us all kinds of remorse.

Chicago's boasting of having "the finest and largest new court house in the world" just gives New York a chance to say that if any place needs a court house like that it is Chicago.

A magazine writer asks: "Why do couples go to a cemetery to spoon?" When a girl finds that a fellow is "dead gone" on her she probably thinks the cemetery is the place to take him.

As McInty, who "went to the bottom of the sea dressed in his best suit of clothes," hasn't been heard of lately, he may have a corral bed 100 miles north of Porto Rico where soundings show that the sea is 27,366 feet deep. That is the deepest spot in the Atlantic, while the deepest hole in the Pacific ocean is near Guam where the bottom is down 32,166 feet.

The Greensboro Industrial News says "the people of North Carolina are breaking away from old time prejudices." The Republican paper means to say that some of the people are falling from grace in the Democratic party and landing in the disgrace of the Republican party. They are doubtless few who will "break away" and take a leap like that.

The town of Brock, in Holland, must be afraid of the inspectors, as it is the cleanest town in the world, according to newspaper reports. The people are said to be so scrupulously neat and tidy that a horse is not allowed in the streets. Edam cheese is manufactured there and probably that is a way the Brock people have of letting us know that it isn't tainted.

FUNERAL OF B. C. BORDEAUX.

Remains of Young Man Laid to Rest With Honors of Red Men.

With the honors of the fraternity of Red Men, more than a hundred of whom were present, the remains of the late Benjamin Cooper Bordeaux were laid to rest in beautiful Oakdale cemetery yesterday morning. The funeral services were from the late residence on Harnett street and were conducted by the Rev. A. D. McClure, D. D., pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church. Members of the three tribes of I. O. R. M. in the city had gathered at their wigwam and were present in a body to do honor to their deceased brother. At the grave the services were by the Red Men according to the beautiful ritual. Great Sachem J. R. Davis and Great Prophet Robert H. Cowan officiated at the service.

The pallbearers were Messrs. Otto Banck, E. P. H. Strunk, W. L. Burkheimer and Sol Sternberger, honorary; Messrs. W. H. Coleman, R. B. Futch, W. R. Stees, W. B. Munroe, Martin VonOesen and James Wenberg, active.

Big Consignment of Mulletts.

Thus far the catch of mulletts off this coast has been extremely small and dealers have found it difficult to fill orders for September stock to say nothing of having any on hand for later in the season. WRIGHTSVILLE DRAW Hearing to Be Had Before Maj. Winslow in Regard to Trestle of Consolidated Company Over Banks Channel—New Line?

Major E. Eveleth Winslow, in charge of this district Corps of Engineers, United States Army, has appointed Thursday, October 18th, at noon, as the date and hour for a hearing of persons interested in the proposed draw in the trestle of the Consolidated Railways, Light and Power Company over the Banks Channel at Wrightsville Beach. The hearing will take place in Maj. Winslow's office on the third floor of the Post-office Building and all interested will be given an opportunity to be heard for or against the project.

It is proposed to place in the bridge, which now spans the water course, a draw having a clear width of opening of not less than 20 feet, the same to be located as to best serve the interests of navigation. The company is given until the 1st day of May, 1907 to put the draw in the event that after the hearing it is deemed advisable. As all the papers will be laid before the Secretary of War for his decision, it is suggested that it will perhaps best suit the purpose of those to be heard to submit in writing and in duplicate whatever they may wish to present.

It is known that the Consolidated Company will strenuously oppose the draw in every legitimate way, inasmuch as such an arrangement would greatly hinder travel to the beach at all seasons. It will be further set up that there is no reasonable demand for the draw and that vessels of no commercial importance would use the course in the event of its being opened. It is hinted that if the company is required to put in the draw, it may change the course of its line to the beach, running across Masonboro from Bradley's Creek to the southern end of the beach where only a fill would be required over the Sound and the line to Wrightsville would be made a branch. It is known that surveys have been made across Masonboro with some end in view and it is believed that the purpose is to eliminate the cost of the expensive trestle work across the Sounds and reach a new territory by entering on the southern end of the beach. The action of the War Department in this respect will be watched with a great deal of interest, as it may change the map of the entire territory of Wilmington suburban resorts.

YOUNG NEGRO DROWNED.

Engaged in Repair Work at Sound, Lost His Depth.

Archie Bannerman, a young negro of Wrightsville Sound, while engaged with a force of men in recovering timber and lumber for the Consolidated Company after the storm of two weeks ago at Wrightsville Beach, was drowned in Banks Channel early yesterday afternoon. Bannerman was on the hammocks pulling in lumber from the Banks Channel when in some way in reaching out for the floating timber, he lost his footing and was swept under by the strong current in the Sound. His body at last accounts had not been recovered, though several of his fellow employees saw him go down. They were powerless to assist him.

Mr. N. E. Bradford to Wed.

Friends of Mr. N. E. Bradford, formerly superintendent of the Life Insurance Company of Virginia in this city, will be interested in the following announcement, which were received by friends in this city yesterday: "Mr. Marion Ashby Peacock requests the honor of your presence at the marriage of his sister, Clyde Richardson, to Mr. Neil Edward Bradford, on Wednesday, the seventeenth of October, nineteen hundred and six at high noon, Saint Paul's Episcopal Church, Goldsboro, North Carolina."

To Raise the Atlantic.

Mr. C. D. Maffitt, the agent in this city, was notified yesterday that the Merritt-Chapman Diving and Wrecking Company, of Norfolk, had been awarded the contract for raising the steamer Atlantic which was sunk in collision with the Clyde liner Navahoe, near the mouth of the Cape Fear river, some time ago. Mr. Maffitt said that a tug with apparatus left Norfolk yesterday afternoon and would probably reach Southport today.

VERDICT OF $12,000

Horne Damage Suit Against Consolidated Company Ended in Superior Court.

THE PLAINTIFF RECOVERS

Case Against Atlantic Coast Line By Pender County Man Is Now in Hearing—Divorce Granted in Case of Bell vs. Bell.

After deliberating a little more than two hours early yesterday afternoon the jury in the Superior Court which had in hearing the case of Melvin Horne against the Consolidated Company returned a verdict of $12,000 for the plaintiff. The amount is understood to have been a compromise between the several members of the jury, some of whom favored an award of $10,000 and others who were for various amounts up to $40,000. The issues were submitted and answered as follows:

Was plaintiff injured by the negligence of the defendant? Answer: "Yes."

If so, did the plaintiff by his own negligence, contribute to his injury? Answer: "No."

What damage, if any, has plaintiff sustained? Answer: "$12,000."

Although as yet no motions have been made by counsel for defendants in the action, it is understood that the case will go to the Supreme Court. Then also there may be a motion to set aside the verdict or to change it in the discretion of the trial judge. When the verdict was returned yesterday the court was in the midst of another trial and no motions were entertained by Judge Jones.

The trial of the case was resumed yesterday with argument to the jury, Fredell Meares, Esq., concluding a strong appeal in behalf of the company. Mr. Meares was followed by Herbert McClammy, Esq., in a very strong address in behalf of the plaintiff. Then came a remarkably clear charge by Judge Jones and the jury retired just before the dinner recess. The verdict was returned about 3:45 and the jury was dismissed after a service of nearly four days. When the case was tried before about the same length of time was consumed in the hearing and a verdict of $5,000 was given the plaintiff. This, however, was set at naught by the Supreme Court which granted a new trial. This has just been concluded and the future steps taken will be watched with increasing interest.

Court met at 9:15 A. M. yesterday morning and the sheriff returned as takersmen summoned for the day Messrs. Jas. S. Hooper, W. J. Craig, Jno. A. Everitt, Jr., W. H. Schaefer, H. A. Huggins, J. B. Casteen, F. L. Almitz, Sam J. Ellis, E. P. H. Strunk, D. N. Chadwick, K. H. Beery and Peter Mohr. The following were not found: B. N. Bowden, L. W. Merritt, A. B. Mote, Levi Bryan and Henry Fergus. Excused by the court: W. J. Craig and E. P. H. Strunk.

During the afternoon the court entered upon the trial of a $20,000 damage suit against the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company by S. P. Peterson, of Pender county. The complaint alleges that June 10th, 1902, while the plaintiff was an operative at the saw mill of E. A. Hawes & Co., at a crossing a few miles above Atkinson, N. C., on the A. & Y. railroad, he endeavored to board a freight train of the defendant company to give some instructions to Conductor McCulloch in regard to the placing of some cars on a siding there, when the train came back on the crossing with much violence as the result of which his foot was caught between two bumpers and four of his toes and a part of his foot was cut off. It is alleged that in consequence of this he was laid up for nine months and is permanently incapacitated from pursuing his daily vocation in life. The plaintiff is represented by R. G. Grady and Herbert McClammy, Esqs., and the railroad company by Messrs. Davis & Davis and Hon. Jno. D. Bellamy & Son. The jury finally empaneled to hear the case is composed of Messrs. S. W. Ketchum, M. E. Keadley, James Owen Reilly, Jno. A. Everitt, Jr., F. L. Mintz, R. H. Beery, Peter Mohr, J. T. Bunke, R. C. Sloan, Ed. Dudley, C. R. Spooner and J. O. Brock.

Dr. Geo. F. Lucas, of Currie, the attending physician and several other witnesses representing the railroad and the plaintiff are here to testify in the case, but only one or two of them had been heard when court took a M'KANNA CLUB.

Class Under Treatment For Liquor Habit at First Baptist Church Completed Cure Last Night—Forty-Three Grateful Men.

At 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon the class of 43 of the 58 men who accepted the proposition of Dr. J. J. McKanna and the ministers of the city to take the Three-Day Liquor Cure, and who started the treatment on Tuesday morning, were discharged by the doctor.

A happier or more contented set of men it has seldom been one's opportunity to witness. Men from all walks of life, for the most part good mechanics who came to Dr. McKanna in all stages of intoxication, some of them on the verge of delirium tremens, were turned out in a sober and sound condition, as if by magic, and each one declared it his purpose never again to indulge in intoxicants.

There were many stirring scenes and incidents during the progress of the meeting, but the climax was reached at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, when all of the men filed into the hall and informed the doctor that they proposed to form a McKanna Club.

Consequently a rostrum was improvised and a temporary chairman chosen, after which the following permanent officers were elected and committees appointed:

President—Reuben Grant.
Secretary—C. H. Huband.
Treasurer—Daniel Cameron.
Committee on Permanent Hall—C. G. Sellers, Hanson Collins, Daniel Rowan.

Committee on By-laws—Hanson Collins, J. M. King, C. H. Keene, Daniel Cameron.

Executive Committee—Herbert Ward, Joe Brown, J. K. Jones, R. L. Rouse, C. H. Huband, Daniel Rowan, Edward Yopp, Claude Dollar and Mr. King.

The "Dr. McKanna Temperance Club, No. 1," was selected as the name for the club and it was decided to admit as active members only those persons who have taken the treatment.

Short talks were made by several of the pastors of the city and by Dr. McKanna. The meeting was full of enthusiasm and good fellowship abounded without limit, as it has done at all times during the time of treatment.

At the conclusion of the meeting standing vote of thanks was unanimously extended to Dr. McKanna and all of the city ministers who assisted in making it possible for so large a number to be treated here at this time, after which the meeting adjourned to meet in the same hall again next Thursday night at 8:30 o'clock.

There only remains a class of twelve men now to finish the treatment. They will be finally discharged this afternoon.

Dr. McKanna left yesterday evening for Reidsville and will leave in a few days for Kansas City, Mo., to meet an appointment there. Dr. J. B. Gunter remains in charge of the class now under treatment here, but will return to the sanitarium at Reidsville tonight.

recess at 6 o'clock yesterday evening. At that hour the plaintiff himself was on the stand and had just been turned over to the defence for cross examination. This will be completed this morning.

The only other case disposed of in court yesterday was the divorce proceeding brought by Mrs. Minnie Lee Bell against Frank A. Bell. The divorce was granted on the Biblical grounds provided by statute. The defendant made no response to the summons and is understood to be in another State. The case was conducted for the plaintiff by Marsden Bellamy, Jr., Esq.

The case of Frank Meier against the Consolidated Company may probably be taken up to-day. In this case heavy damages are asked for the killing of plaintiff's brother by a suburban car near Greenville station, on the Sound. This case will probably require several days for trial and will be contested by very able counsel by both sides.

REHDER'S OPENING.

Annual Display of Fall and Winter Goods at Big Department Store.

THE CROWDS WERE THERE

Many New and Novel Styles in Every Nook and Corner of Great Establishment—Reception Last Night—Continues To-Day.

An event extraordinary with worshippers at the shrine of beauty and fashion was the annual Fall and Winter opening of millinery and dry goods at the big Department Store of Messrs. J. H. Rehder & Co., on North Fourth street, yesterday. All day long the store was crowded with ladies from every part of the city and not a few from out of town. Their admiration for the splendid display of bright new things fresh from the fashion centres North was a handsome compliment to those who made the selections and arranged for such an artistic exposition of all that is up to the present in the art. The opening reached the zenith of its glory last evening from 8 to 10 o'clock when the throngs were at their height and the elegance of it all was enhanced with inspiring music from the Academy Orchestra, which had a position in the balcony over the gents' furnishing department and discoursed lively airs while the ladies revelled in the delights of the beautiful exhibition.

The casual visitor to the store this season is struck with the very material enlargement that has been made to the building during the Summer, nearly half of which is given to the millinery. Altogether the firm has 25,000 feet of floor space under the one roof and everything is neatly and nicely arranged. From front to rear for the opening one finds a very tasteful decoration of plants and flowers a distinguishing feature in the millinery salesroom being a very pretty autumn arch entwined with grape vines from which large bunches of the delicious fruit hang in clusters, the whole lighted with incandescents, half concealed in the foliage. The effect here as well as that all over the store, is very pretty indeed and combines with the magnificent display of goods to make a beauty-place not to be despised. The decorations were designed by Mr. Rehder and Mr. E. C. Moore and were executed under their capable direction.

Miss Sarah Gardner assisted by Miss Maude Lee Vaughan, for several years connected with one of the largest millinery houses in Raleigh, and nine other young lady assistants are in charge of the trimming department of the millinery goods, and Miss Lottie Hobbs, assisted by Misses Burkheimer and Gerdes, is in charge of the salesroom. Miss Gardner and Mr. and Mrs. Rehder spent some weeks North in the early part of the season and they have made a beautiful and one of the largest selections ever brought to the city. More than 500 exclusive styles in hats are shown with a great variety of trimmings. The leading shades this season are brown, green, gray and garnet, while some of the favorite trimmings are ostrich tips, feathers, aigrettes, wings, roses, fruits and foliage, moline, velvets and all of the lighter materials. The leading patterns in hats are the Georgette, Leonine, MacDill, Gilbert, Ryleine, Vestilia, Julia Bonbon, Tambourine, Ashbury and the Czarina.

A try-on room is an innovation in that in the rear of the salesroom is a quiet, secluded spot where any customer may have any number of styles presented for approval without the publicity so common to the ordinary millinery establishment.

Just to the rear of the millinery department may be found a complete department of cloaks, furs, veils and the like in all colors and styles. This was made possible by the enlargement of the store, which now ranks as one of the largest, best ventilated and most convenient in the State. The enlargement also afforded opportunity for adding another department known as the Five, Ten and Twenty-Five Cent counters where many useful articles are attractively displayed.

The carpet room of the establishment is on the second floor in the annex. This too is very complete and the line includes every variety and price of goods including rugs, curtains, portieres and the like. Here the latest machinery is installed for sewing and matching goods so that

TOM SAWYER DEAD.

A special dispatch from San Francisco to the Baltimore Sun on Tuesday announces the death of Tom Sawyer, whose burial took place Monday under the auspices of the Veteran Firemen's Association. Mark Twain's book "Tom Sawyer" made the San Francisco man famous, as he was the original of the book of the now venerable Samuel Clemens who wrote numerous books under the pseudonym of Mark Twain. Mr. Clemens is now an honored and highly esteemed resident of New York where he is spending a beautiful old age.

Tom Sawyer was one of the pioneers of the West and loved to relate reminiscences of his early days of friendship with the noted author when he was "Roughing It" in the wild and woolly West. Sawyer kept a saloon in Mission street, San Francisco, where for 25 years he has recounted his boyish exploits with "Sam Clemens." Sawyer had been pioneer steamboat engineer, veteran volunteer fireman and vigilante. So highly did the author appreciate Tom Sawyer that it has been said he gave his name to his famous boy character.

Tom Sawyer was born in New York January 1, 1827. He went to California in 1850 and was first employed as a marine engineer. He was one of the organizers of the volunteer fire department and later was a member of the regular department. For years he conducted a saloon in Mission street, which was a museum of relics of the pioneer days.

Sawyer lived to see San Francisco grow to be a great city from the small town that used to have a volunteer fire department. What a wonderful development the old saloon keeper has witnessed in a memorable life time.

MANUFACTURERS TO ORGANIZE.

The Charlotte Observer announces that a movement is on foot to organize the North Carolina Cotton Manufacturers' Association. A preliminary meeting was held at Charlotte a month ago, at which time it was decided to call a general meeting in Charlotte of all cotton manufacturers in the State, October 16th. A committee on invitation was appointed, with Mr. R. M. Miller, Jr., chairman, to urge all North Carolina manufacturers to attend.

The committee has sent out invitations to the meeting on the 16th instant and no doubt there will be a ready response from manufacturers all over North Carolina. The object of bringing the cotton mill men together in an organization is to cultivate closer relations among manufacturers, promote a better understanding ing among those who are interested in the industry, and to co-operate in promoting the progress of manufacturing in North Carolina. South Carolina recently organized such an organization and it is said it is doing a great work for the cotton manufacturing industry in that State.

North and South Carolina are the leading cotton manufacturing States in the South, and there is no doubt that organization will immensely advance the interests of the manufacturers and bring about conditions that will not only be advantageous for the present but pave the way for future development by better methods. Many cotton mill men are interested in the Charlotte meeting on the 16th inst., and we are gratified to note that North Carolina is not going to get left. The movement is one that deserves hearty encouragement.

KIND OF AN INSULTING INVITATION.

Marion Butler, Judge Spencer B. Adams and other Republican speakers are strenuously inviting white North Carolinians to join the Republican party. They want the new recruits to take the place of negroes who cannot vote Republican as of yore, for the reason that the Democrats of North Carolina protected the franchise from a class of black voters who were a constant menace to the best interests of the State. It is up to the white man to say whether or not they will fall into the ranks where the negro dropped out.

Is President Roosevelt really going to assist at the dedication of Pennsylvania's new State House at Harrisburg this week, notwithstanding the fact that an official investigator has just brought out the fact that while the building alone cost $4,550,000 and was built within the appropriation, the furnishings and fittings have cost $9,000,000, or just about twice the cost of the unfurnished structure? It looks like a gigantic steal, and it would seem as if the President might feel warranted in cancelling his engagement unless he proposes to deliver an address on graft, using the new State House outfit as a shocking example.—Boston Herald.

THE RECLAMATION OF SWAMP LANDS

Senator Simmons and Other Southern Congressmen May Introduce Bills in Congress to Secure Government Drainage.

(Charlotte Observer.)

Washington, Oct. 3.—As bills will probably be introduced in Congress this winter by many Senators and Representatives from Southern States providing for drainage and irrigation work in the South, a report recently gotten up by the United States geological survey will prove exceedingly interesting. Among the Southern members who will probably introduce bills are Senator Daniel, of Virginia; Senator Simmons, of North Carolina, and Representative Legare, Patterson and Lever, of South Carolina.

There are in the United States over six million acres of swamp lands. Now that agricultural lands are becoming scarce and the government has shown what it can do to water the barren deserts of the West, the people of the country are beginning to realize that the government might be equally successful in removing superabundant water. The fact has been established that by drainage these waste swamp lands may be rendered habitable and productive. Since the government has set aside millions of dollars for the reclamation of the desert lands of the arid West through the agency of irrigation, this fact is specially interesting, for the vast swamps of the lower Mississippi Valley and of Florida and the southeastern coastal plain are now the only great remaining sources of future agricultural lands.

The effort to drain swamp lands began, like the movement to irrigate the deserts, with the individual, was taken up by the corporation or colony, and is now fast becoming the concern of the State. In northern New York, Ohio and Wisconsin corporations as well as individuals have drained some of the larger swamps and now raise in them the finest quality of celery, onions and asparagus. In California the State has aided in draining the tule lands, as the extremely fertile swamp lands of the lower Sacramento valley are called. Here are grown crops of asparagus, onions and other vegetables that love rich and moist soil. In Florida a Governor has recently won an election on the drainage issue, and the people of that State are hoping to drain not only their more accessible swamps but possibly even the great Everglades.

But now he is using the club as an anti-dote.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

—Gunner—In surgery they can restore a person's skin by grafting. Guyer—What a big difference between surgery and politics. Gunner—What is the difference? Guyer—Why, in politics they skin people by grafting.—Chicago Daily News.

Danger from the Plague.

There's growing danger from the plague of Coughs and Colds that are so prevalent, unless you take Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Mrs. Geo. Walls, of Forest City, Me., writes: "It's a Godsend to people living in climates where coughs and colds prevail. I find it quickly ends them. It prevents Pneumonia, cures LaGrippe, gives wonderful relief in Asthma and Hay Fever, and makes weak lungs strong enough to ward off Consumption, Coughs, and Colds. 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by all druggists. Trial bottle free.

GREW THIS HAIR And we can PROVE IT

MISS DOROTHY CLARK, 2130 Graham St., Chicago.

Put the scalp in active and normal condition, and the hair will take care of itself every time. The scalp is the soil in which the hair grows. It alone governs the growth of the hair, and it must be kept fresh and healthy to insure a good crop of hair. The hair is a product of the scalp, and all the treatments in Christendom will do no good, unless they are specifically efficacious in the cure of the diseases peculiar to the scalp. NOW at all druggists, three sizes. 25c, 50c, and $1.00 per bottle.

LEGAL ADVICE.

A Case Where Proceedings in Court Were Unnecessary.

Two or three Chicago lawyers were discussing the tricks of their trade. "A big, burly fellow from the Michigan pine forests came into my office," said one of them, "and told a very mean story about a rich man here in town who was trying to cheat him out of $2,000 or $3,000 and who had managed to get a pretty tight clutch on the money. The backwoodsman looked and talked like an honest man, and the old miser's reputation was mean enough to match the story, so I felt inclined to believe it. When he had finished I looked him up and down from head to foot. He asked me what I was looking him over for. 'Well,' said I, 'I was thinking that if I were over six feet tall and as powerful a man as you I wouldn't hire a lawyer to help me get that money.' The man's excited face smoothed out into blank astonishment. 'What do you mean?' he said. I answered: 'I mean just what I say. You are sure, are you, that he has that money in his office?' 'He had it there last night,' 'Well, you don't need a lawyer.'

"The man turned on his heel and left without another word. In a day or two he sent me a check for $50 and his thanks for my advice."

Old French Bonfire.

Probably the strangest detail recorded of the old midsummer eve bonfires is one in connection with those that used to be lighted in the Palace de Greve in Paris. The main constituent of the bonfire was a tree, which the king was accustomed to fire with his own hands, the ashes being afterward carried home by the people for good luck. Louis XIV. was the last king who did his part. A mysterious item of earlier times was the burning in the bonfire of a barrel, bag or basket full of cats. The registers of Paris show that a hundred cats were paid to an official for having provided during three years (1571-73) "all the cats required, as usual, for the fire," and also in one year, when the king was present, "a fox, to give pleasure to his majesty and for having provided a great bag of linen in which the said cats were."—London Chronicle.

Sixteen Miles Underground.

The most remarkable canal in the world is the one between Worsley and St. Helena, in the north of England. It is sixteen miles long and underground from end to end. In Lancashire the coal mines are very extensive, half the county being undermined. Many years ago the managers of the Duke of Bridgeport's estates thought they could save money by transporting the coal underground instead of on the surface; therefore the canal was constructed and the mines connected and drained at the same time.—Pearson's Weekly.

A Wise Son.

"A dislike," said the gentle philosopher, "should not lead us to any active demonstration. We should merely seek to avoid its object."

"Maybe my boy Josh has more sense than I gave him credit for," rejoined Farmer Cornstossel. "That's exactly the way he feels about work of all kinds."—Washington Star.

An Expert Statement.

"Is there any sure way of knowing when a man is meaning to propose?" asked the bud. "You needn't worry about that," said the belle. "The knowledge comes by nature. The most important thing is to know when he isn't going to."

Politeness in Childhood.

"What kind of apple will you have, Willie—mince or apple?" "I'll take two pieces of each, please." "Two pieces?" "Yes'm. Mamma told me not to ask twice."—Life.

To do a kindness to a bad man is like sowing seed in the sea.—Phocylides.

A Badly Burned Girl or boy, man or woman, is quickly out of pain if Bucklen's Arnica Salve is applied promptly. G. J. Welch, of Tekonsha, Mich., says: "I use it in my family for cuts: 'I use it in my injuries, and find it perfect.' Quickest Pile cure known. Best healing salve made. 25c at all druggists. **

—Capt. Jerry Respass has completed a new survey from Lumberton to Fayetteville via Hope Mills, for a proposed branch of the Aberdeen and Rockfish Railroad.

—There is general comment on the sharp rise in land values in and around Raleigh recently. Last week a lot which was bought two years ago for $4,500 was sold for $10,000 cash. There is also a marked increase in prices of lands in the country.

—Charlotte Observer, Oct. 4: A number of Catawba Indians spent a few hours in the city yesterday morning selling clay pipes and curious Indian handicraft. They came from the settlement near Rock Hill, S. C., and did a thriving business while in the city.

—At Raleigh, on Wednesday, when Mrs. Ben Koonce, a well-known lady, got off a street car, a young white man named W. N. Murray, cursed and insulted her. She appealed to Mr. A. Dughi, who ran the man down, colored him, and in spite of resistance turned him over to the police.

—At Raleigh on Wednesday the Secretary of State chartered the Flint Manufacturing Company, of Gastonia. The purpose among other things is to manufacture all kinds of textile fabrics, deal in goods, wares and merchandise, lands, manufacture and deal in furniture. Also in ice. The authorized capital is $150,000, with $72,000 paid in.

—Penitentiary directors met in Raleigh on Wednesday and heard several reports, one of these being on the cotton crop at the State farm near Weldon. The acreage there is 1,300, the same as last year, when the crop was 1,158 bales. W. E. Crossland, an expert farmer on the board of directors, says the crop will be 200 bales less this year.

—In the Superior Court at Raleigh on Wednesday George Cross, the negro charged with causing the death of his father by shoving him out of the door and breaking his neck, has been acquitted, it being shown that the father was endeavoring to enter the house and that his daughter closed door in his face, thus knocking him down the steps, his neck striking the fence.

—A Boston dispatch on Wednesday, says: A $20,000 block of North Carolina State bonds, offered by the Boston market by N. W. Harris & Co., the Boston bankers, is being rapidly picked up by small investors, who are buying them at 102 1-2 and accrued interest, this figure averaging to net the 3.33 per cent. income. The bonds are the 4 per cent., maturing July 1, 1910.

—Greensboro Special, Oct. 3.—The organization meeting of the Southern States Fire Insurance Co., of Greensboro was held this evening. The company was chartered a few weeks ago with an authorized capital of $750,000. A substantial amount of capital stock has been taken. The company is distinctly Southern, and intends to invite contracts of such greatness that other home companies have not felt able to undertake.

—Greensboro Special, Oct. 3: As a result of recent interviews and statements made in public speeches by the two men, Judge S. B. Adams, chairman of the State Republican committee, today challenged E. J. Justice, Democratic candidate for the Legislature, to meet him in joint debate in Stanly county on October 13th. On account of another appointment, Mr. Justice declined, but offered to meet Judge Adams on any other date convenient to both, in Greensboro.

—Salisbury special, Oct. 3.—At Whitney early yesterday morning Mat Brown, a negro cook in one of the camps at that place, shot and killed Jim Griffin, a colored employe of the contractors on the big power plant at the narrows of the Yadkin river, and seriously wounded another negro in the fight which followed. The weapon used by the woman was a double-barrelled shotgun. It is alleged that she shot the two men in self-defense though she was carried to Albemarle where she was jailed without bail to await trial for murder.

—Raleigh News and Observer, Oct. 4: Clyde Faison, wanted in Raleigh charged with the larceny of about $600 from William Yager, of the Allen Roofing Company, of this city, has been arrested in Columbia, S. C., and Mr. W. L. Watson, the attorney for Yager, will today ask Governor Glenn for a requisition on the Governor of South Carolina for him. Yager in July last swore out a warrant against Faison charging larceny from a trunk in his room but Faison left before the warrant was served, being reported as being in Newport News and Norfolk, and once as having slipped in and out of Raleigh. Messages describing him caused his arrest in Columbia.

—Registered distillery No. 19, run by W. M. Skinner at LaGrange, was seized Wednesday morning by Revenue Officer J. E. Cameron, for alleged irregularities. The entire outfit was taken, together with 1,000 gallons of spirits which was sent to the collector's office at Raleigh.

—Maxton Special, Oct. 3.—Mr. Joseph E. Avent, who for several months has been editing The Scottish Chief, has been elected principal of Morganton graded schools and has taken up the new work there. He will move his family in a week or ten days. The Scottish Chief has been purchased by Mr. Leon T. Cook, of this place, and Mr. Fred Brown, of Red Springs, who will take charge this week, and we feel sure with this management the paper will continue to succeed, as it deserves.

—Newbern Special, Oct. 3: The contempt of court case against Revenue Collector Duncan, whereby he refused to answer questions regarding the illegal sale of liquor, was dismissed after the facts had been gone into. Judge Shaw stated in court this morning that the rule of the Treasury Department prohibiting any information relating to the granting of license had been repealed by the enactment of a recent law of Congress. However, he said, the evidence was not competent and therefore the defendant would be released.

—The court house at Wentworth, Rockingham county, was destroyed by fire Tuesday night. All the county records were saved. The insurance on the building was $9,000. The fire originated in Withers & Co.'s store, which was destroyed, together with their stock of goods. The insurance on this was $2,000. Johnston's law office was also destroyed. Steps are being taken to have the county seat removed to Reidsville. That town will probably offer to have a court house built without expense to the county in order to have Reidsville made the capital.

—Newbern special, Oct. 3: B. G. Harrison and U. B. Sauls, members of the grand jury were found on the street in an intoxicated condition. They were taken before the court. Judge Shaw gave them a severe reprimand and sentenced them to five days in jail and to pay fifty dollars fine. There were two important blind tiger cases disposed of, Louis B. Habicht, whose case has been in the court for several terms, was sentenced to six months in jail and to pay $500 fine. James Harrison was fined $1,000. Three cases have occupied the attention of the public, and that of Habicht has been especially flagrant.

—Winston-Salem special, Oct. 3: Judge Starbuck and Messrs. Lindsay Patterson, D. H. Blair and George Dwire have returned from Yadkinville, where they represented Winston-Salem at a meeting called for the purpose of discussing the proposition to build a railroad from this city through Yadkin, on to the mountains. Assurance was given that the business men of the Twin City stood ready to do their part in order to secure the enterprise. The promoters of the road have decided that until a definite action can be taken until a charter is secured from the next Legislature. Those behind the proposition argue that the road will be built.

—Kinston special, Oct. 3: The Republican senatorial convention met here today. Mr. T. B. Hewitt, of Newport, was elected chairman, and Mr. S. R. Dunn, of Kinston, secretary. Senatorial sacrifices were made as follows: Robert Thompson, of Onslow, and C. S. Wooten, of Lenoir. After the business of the convention was finished, a committee went to the hotel for ex-senator Butler, who was scheduled to speak at the time. His audience was composed of about 150 white Republicans, 150 negroes and 200 Democrats. The number of white Republicans is due to the convention and a number of delegates from the counties. The Free Press has this to say of the speech: "All in all, the speech was disappointing and undignified for a man of Mr. Butler's position, and more becoming in a ward or county politician who assumed to speak to an ignorant crowd and talked for cheap applause and not appealing to reason." The speaker was given the best attention by all present and he received applause quite a number of times from the Republicans. The brother in black was there in numbers, but if he found the comforting word he was in search of it was after the reporter left the speaker.

THE ACADEMY ATTRACTIONS.

"The Little Duchess" To-night; "Her Own Way" Saturday.

The Academy will offer to patrons to-night that charming musical comedy success, "The Little Duchess," with Countess Olga von Hatzfeldt in the leading role. The piece had a wonderful run at the New York Casino and the Countess will be found one of the most interesting and attractive figures before the footlights. In the "Little Duchess" she is seen to excellent advantage and her tour South this season has been conspicuously marked by one success after another.
Sale of seats for this production is now in progress at Plummer's.

"Her Own Way" which will be the offering to-morrow night is the story of a fashionable home. It is a play full of deep human interest and has taken well wherever it has been seen this season. In addition to the night production, "Her Own Way" will be offered at special matinee to-morrow afternoon at the usual hour. Matinee prices are 25 and 50 cents. Seats for the night production are now on sale.

RHEDER'S OPENING.

orders are filled on the same day as far as possible that they are received.

Then there are the other departments—shoes, clothing, dress goods and novelties, in every one of which there is a special display. In the shoe department are carried the famous Crawfords for men and the Dolly Madison for ladies and children. There is an especially fine showing in each of these departments and 36 polite, accommodating attaches of the big store are always present to interest the buyer in an article on sale.

But the opening will continue to-day and there is ample opportunity for everyone to visit the establishment and see for themselves the great display. Mr. Rehder extends a cordial welcome to everyone to come and look over the new styles and new offerings in every department whether they wish to purchase now or later.

CURIOUS FISH.

They Keep Their Eggs in Natural Pockets in Their Mouths.

In the sea of Galilee, or Lake Tibe-rias, as it is also called, there is a strange fish named the Chromis simonis, which is more careful of its young than fish generally are. The male takes the eggs in his mouth and keeps them in his natural side pockets, where they are regularly hatched and remain until able to shift for themselves. By this ingenious arrangement the brood is comparatively guarded against its natural enemies. It is easily fed, too, but it is a puzzle how the little ones escape being eaten alive. A while ago, says a traveler writing to a religious contemporary, I found in my net a number of these fish without eyes.

Others of the species, when I lifted them up, dropped a number of little fishes out of their mouths, which swam away hastily. The natives explained the phenomenon. The blind chromis is the victim of sea hawks. When these birds have eaten their fill they begin to look out for tidbits. After catching a fish they hit its forehead with their sharp beak, knocking out the middle part, in which their eyes are set. The bony structure is dropped into the water, but the eyes are eaten by the birds with great relish. Strangely enough, the fish generally survive this rough treatment. The wound heals up quickly in water, and they continue to ply the lake for food as if nothing had happened.—London Standard.

FOND OF FINERY.

Elephants Delight in Dress and Gorgeous Trappings.

Elephants are passionately fond of finery and delight to see themselves decked out with gorgeous trappings.
The native princes of India are very particular in choosing their state elephants and will give fabulous sums for an animal that exactly meets the somewhat fanciful standards they have erected.

For these they have made cloths of silk so heavily embroidered with gold that two men are hardly able to lift them.

An amusing instance of elephantine pride is narrated: The elephant which usually led the state procession of a rajah being ill, the magnificent trappings were placed on one which had up to that time occupied only a subordinate place.

The animal, delighted with its finery, showed its glee by so many little squeaks and kicks of pleasure that general attention was attracted to it.

Not long after another state procession was formed, and the previous wearer of the gold cloths, being restored to health, took his accustomed place and trappings, when the now degraded beast, imagining, perhaps, that he was being defrauded of his promotion, was with great difficulty restrained from attacking the leader of the parade.

Road Markers.

On some of the Yorkshire moors white posts are to be seen along the narrow tracks which serve as roads.
They are called "stoops" and are something like boundary posts in appearance. A casual observer might imagine that they really did denote a county or parish boundary, but such is not the case. When snow covers the ground and the paths are invisible these posts point out where they lie and so save the wayfarer from being lost.—London Mail.

The Teacher's Joy.

Parent—How did you get along with your geography lesson today, Johnnie?
Pupil—Beautifully. The teacher was so pleased that she made me stay after school and repeat it all over again, only just to her.

Her Choice.

She—So these are the china bargains you advertised? Dealer—Yes, ma'am, and they're going for little or nothing.
She—All right, I'll take that blue dish for nothing.—London Answers.

BRUNSWICK COUNTY CONVENTION

Full Ticket Named at Lockwood's Folly Wednesday at Noon.

A full county ticket was nominated at an enthusiastic convention of Brunswick county Democrats at Lockwood's Folly Wednesday at noon. The convention was well attended and was very enthusiastic. It was called to order by George H. Bellamy, chairman of the county executive committee, and Mr. J. D. Robbins was made temporary chairman. A permanent organization was perfected with Dr.
T. V. Moore, of Phoenix, as chairman.
Sheriff Peter Rourke was re-nominated on the first ballot over two other candidates in the field, Messrs. J. Dillard Bellamy and J. S. Rowell. For the Legislature Capt. J. J. Adkins was named and other offices were filled with the following nominees: Treasurer, Charles Russ; Surveyor, William Holmes; Register of Deeds, G. M.
McKeithan; Clerk of the Superior Court, Robert S. Newton; Coroner, Dr.
T. V. Moore. The same Board of County Commissioners was re-nominated with the exception of J. W.
Tharp who was succeeded by F. Formduval.

The most strenuous fight of the convention was for chairman of the County Executive Committee. Dr. T. V.
Moore having won over Geo. H. Bellamy, who has been chairman for a number of years. The ticket is a good one and will be elected against the field.

Annual Meeting To-night—Boys' and Men's Meetings Resumed.

There will be a meeting of the active members of the Young Men's Christian Association to-night at 8 o'clock for the purpose of electing directors for two years. Six will be elected. After the election that body will meet and elect officers of the Board for one year.

The Boys' Bible class will be resumed to-night when those boys who are interested in Bible study will meet at lunch served in their room in the Association building at 7 o'clock. Mr.
F. C. Debebe, present chairman of the Religious Work Committee, has prepared and sent out some very attractive printed matter relative to the work of this class and it is thought that a large number will enroll for study.

The Boys' Sunday Club will resume its regular meetings next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. The speaker will be one of the most prominent business men in the city.

The meeting for men will also be resumed on next Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Much preparation has been made for this meeting and it will be unusually attractive. The speaker will be the Rev. N. M. Watson, whose subject will be: "The Young Man and His Temptations." There will be a song service of fifteen minutes previous to the address also a baritone solo by Mr. Gilbert Foard, one of Wilmington's best and most pleasing singers.

THE REASON.

Why R. R. Bellamy Continues to Recommend Vinol.

First: Because it is not a patent medicine and it contains besides tonic iron all of the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cods' livers, but without a drop of oil to nauseate and upset the stomach and retard its work; therefore, wherever old-fashioned cod liver oil or emulsions will do good, Vinol will do far more good.

Second: Because Vinol acts first upon the stomach creates a healthy appetite, strengthens and tones up the digestive organs, purifies and enriches the blood, and, in a natural manner, restores health and strength.

Third: Because Vinol contains no injurious drugs to react upon the system; every ingredient being named on the label, a patient knows exactly what he is taking.

Fourth: Because we never sold anything in our store that gave such universal satisfaction for old people, weak, sickly, women and children, nursing mothers, and to build up the system after a severe sickness, and for relieving hacking coughs, chronic colds, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles.

Try Vinol on our guarantee. Robert R. Bellamy, Druggist.
Note.—While we are sole agents for Vinol in Wilmington, it is now for sale at the leading drug store in nearly every town and city in the country.

AWFUL STRUGGLE WITH A BRUTE

Young Lady at Tarboro Fells Desperate Assault By Negro—Attacked Her in House at Night While Alone.

(Raleigh News and Observer.)
Tarboro, N. C., Oct. 3.—Within the heart of this town about ten o'clock last night, shielding himself under cover of darkness and the continual rain, an unknown young coal black negro entered the residence of Mrs. E. Miller and made a most determined and desperate attempt to assault her guest, Miss Maye Kidd, of Danville, Va. Mrs. Miller and her husband were down at the Cyclone bargain store preparing for the Fall opening of their millinery department at the time, having left Miss Maye at home with their little child, in view of the weather's increasing inclemency, and that she might give personal attention to some fancy work she had on hand.

Putting the little child to bed early after supper, the young lady devoted herself diligently to her fancy work, which she was very anxious to complete, until about ten o'clock when she went up stairs to her own room to exchange her dress for that of the night, that she might be in a more comfortable way to finish the work she had been doing. Her dress faintly laid aside she slipped on her slumber robe, pinning it together with a safety pin near the neck, and walked up before the mirror to arrange her hair, when all of a sudden she discerned therein the features of a heavily young black negro standing right behind her. She says the whites of the negro's eyes gleamed at her, and that if she ever sees those eyes again she will know them.

Turning involuntarily, she met the negro face to face. He roughly ordered her to hand him the diamond ring she was wearing on her finger. She took it off her finger, he greedily snatching it out of her hand. At the same time he seized violently hold of her with one hand and struck her hard and full in the face with the other. Then commenced a death struggle on his part to consume his hellish design, and hers to save herself blameless.

Despite the savage brutality of the negro, who scarred her face, lacerated her bosom, rent her gown into tatters and inflicted many painful bruises on her person, the lady fought him to a finish like a little tigress, yielding not at all. The negro had so much to do that he dropped the ring, which has since been recovered. But in getting rid of that safety pin he found a mighty obstacle. Finally it was broken after part of it had scratched his hand rather badly, as the finger prints on her gown fully attested, as well as other drops of blood which must have come from his bleeding hands.

Just as this pin was broken and the struggle was at its maximum the little child waked up and cried out. The negro heard this cry. He loosened his hold on her to listen. This was the cry that saved her. Availing herself of this opportunity to escape, she wrenched herself free from his foul degrading embrace, and rushed headlong into the next room, where, in the open closet, she grasped a pistol and returned in time to see and take a parting shot at her would be ravisher, who went scurrying out over the shed and jumped to the street below.

The negro made good his escape. It is not known whether he was hit by her pistol shot or not. Certain it is, that up to the moment Miss Kidd had behaved like a heroine and is one.

The negro disappearing, Miss Kidd screamed aloud for help and fell to the floor uncontrollably hysterical and quite beside herself. In answer to her cries friends rushed in from the neighborhood and found her as just described, lying between the wall of the room and her trunk, still holding her pistol in hand and offering violence to anybody who came near her. They lifted her to her bed, where it took three men to get the pistol out of her hands. As soon as possible Dr. Thigpen arrived and restored her to her natural condition, when she became rapidly self-possessed and narrated the whole story. Careful examination revealed no permanent injuries and it is thought she will soon rally from her nervous shock.

$50.00 Reward.

I will pay a reward of $25.00 for evidence that will convict the party or parties who have been stealing Linotype metal from the Star building. I will pay a like reward for evidence that will convict the person or persons who bought the stolen goods.

CARRIE WHEELER BECOMES BRIDE

Youngest Daughter of Famous Confederate Cavalry General Weds New York Lawyer—Wheeler's Vast Acres in Alabama.

(Baltimore Sun.)

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 2.—Miss Carrie Peyton Wheeler was married today to Mr. Gordon M. Buck, of New York. Miss Wheeler is the daughter of the late Gen. Joseph Wheeler. The wedding was a very quiet one on account of the mourning of the bride's family.

The bride is the youngest of four daughters of the noted commander. She is still in her teens, pretty and fascinating. She was the sponsor for the South at the re-union of the Confederate Veterans at Louisville last Summer and her appearance in the hall was the signal for memorable demonstrations. Mr. Buck is also a Southerner, although he has resided in New York for some time. He is a lawyer and a member of a number of clubs of the Southern societies.

After a short wedding journey Mr. and Mrs. Buck will reside in New York.

Since the death of General Wheeler his daughters have made their home at the old homestead, at Wheeler's Station. The estate there is one of the most magnificent and extensive in northern Alabama. It comprises some 20,000 acres of the finest farming land and surrounds the little station of Wheeler's on every hand.

The house is magnificently furnished and contains curiosities from many lands. Within the house are many rare old paintings. It was here that General Wheeler planned his 10 successful campaigns for Congress.

APPEARING OLD

Let us see a Bar to Profitable Employment.

You cannot afford to grow old. In these days of strenuous competition it is necessary to maintain as long as possible your youthful appearance. It is impossible to do this without retaining a luxurious growth of hair. The presence of Dandruff indicates the presence of a burrowing germ which lives and thrives on the roots of the hair until it causes total baldness. Newbro's Herpicide is the only known destroyer of this pest, and it is as effective as it is delightful to use.

Herpicide makes an elegant hair dressing as well as Dandruff cure. Accept no substitutes—there is none. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

THE COTTON MARKET.

New York, October 4.—The cotton market was very active again today with the close at a net advance of 29 to 39 points after an irregular early session. The sales of the day were estimated at fully 600,000 bales. The opening was steady at an advance of 6 to 12 points in response to hisher cables than looked for, and reports of small southern spot offerings in the English market. The weather reports were considered favorable, however, and there was heavy selling at the initial advance under which the market broke to a net loss of about 4 to 5 points. Around 10.04 for December and 10.07 for January, demand improved owing to the covering of scalping shorts and before midday the market was rallied sharply by the rumors of a heavy storm between New Orleans and Memphis. Prices advanced about 30 points on this rumor, which was followed by aggressive bull support, but eased off later on the forecast for generally clear weather and denials of the storm news. The reaction was a matter of 10 to 12 points from the top and was followed by a second bulge in the later trading which carried the market to a new level for the session, or about 41 to 45 points net higher on the forecast for cold rains in the southwest and fears of an early frost. The close was barely steady in tone and 5 or 6 points off from the best under realizing.

Receipts at the ports today was 40,727 bales, against 38,138 last week and 40,755 last year. For the week 320,000 bales, against 278,545 last week and 351,983 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans, 6,407 bales, against 2,340 last year and at Houston 15,674 bales, against 15,525 last year.

THE CUPEY TREE.

One of the Most Curious Growths of the West Indies.

The cupey, or, as it is sarcastically called in the English possessions, "the attorney," is one of the most curious, as it is one of the most picturesque, denizens of the virgin forests of the West Indian islands. It belongs to the parasitical family of trees or plants; but, terrible to relate, it invariably, with the basest ingratitude, destroys all life in the unfortunate tree that shelters it in its early growth. The seeds are borne on the wings of the wind and deposited on the branches of other trees, when they burst into roots, which are dropped toward the ground all around the "nurse" tree. In time these roots reach the ground and strike into the soil.

From this moment the roots grow stronger and stronger until they resemble a lot of rope ladders thrown over the tree. Next the parasite sends down a great cord, which twines around the trunk of the supporting tree, at first as though in loving embrace, but it grows tighter and tighter, eventually strangling its benefactor out of existence. The nurse tree thus killed rots to decay, and from the immense fibrous roots of the destroyer now springs a great trunk, which rises high into the air. When a cupey is full grown it presents a magnificent spectacle, for the cordlike root rises often to fifty or sixty feet and supports in midair the vast tree itself.

MARIE ANTOINETTE.

Two Dramatic and Contrasting Episodes in Her Life.

Thistleton-Dyer, in his "Royalty in All Ages," describes two dramatic and tragically contrasted episodes in the life of Marie Antoinette, the lovely and ill-fated queen of France. Once, in the days of her greatest popularity, when she went to the opera of "Iphigenia" when Achilles came to the line "Let us sing and celebrate the queen," he turned toward the radiant young sovereign and sang two additional impromptu lines of charming compliment. This graceful and unexpected homage so delighted the audience that "all was shouting and clapping of hands, and what never happened at the opera before—the chorus was encosed, and there were cries of 'Long live the queen!' at which expression of feeling her majesty was so affected that she shed tears."

On the next occasion, when Marie Antoinette's son of popular favor had set and she was nearing the tragic close of her life, one of the actresses in "Unforeseen Events" bowed to her as she sang the words "Ah, how I love my mistress!" In a moment all was in uproar, and the theater was full of hoarse, angry cries of "No mistress! No master! Liberty!" and "No master! No queen!" and it was some minutes before the tumult quieted down and it was possible to proceed with the play.

SOUPS AND BROTHS.

They Are Stimulating, but Have Little Nutritive Value.

Soups and broths made of the meat pieces alone and without the addition of meat substance, eggs, vegetables or cereals have little nutritive value, although they do possess stimulating properties.

A dog would starve to death in ten days if fed upon beef broth pure and simple.

Soup interferes with digestion whenever a full meal is eaten. I consider it as being entirely superfluous and advise its discontinuance in a substantial dinner menu.

Soup, being practically all water, plays an important part in conjunction with the large quantities of other liquids injected during mealtime in delaying and interfering with digestion and laying a foundation for stomach trouble. Through it and the other liquids used the stomach is not only overfilled and unnecessarily burdened, but the gastric secretions are so weakened by dilution that they can act but slowly upon the food mass. Here again we have the food remaining in the stomach for too long a period, and there is likely to be produced all of the symptoms and signs of an intoxication due to the absorption into the system of the products of decomposed foods.

and after the formal greetings the Governor and Mayor Gross, of Harrisburg, presented the President with gold medals as a gift of the State and city respectively.

President Roosevelt was given an enthusiastic reception when he appeared on the grand stand at 11:45 o'clock.

Former Governor William A. Stone, president of the capitol building commission, turned the building over to the Governor, at the same time handing him a gold key.

Governor Pennypacker accepted the building on behalf of the people, in a brief speech.

The Governor introduced President Roosevelt who delivered the principal address of the day. The President wore a raincoat and spoke bareheaded in the rain.

A parade which included one brigade of the Pennsylvania National Guard, cadets from the Carlisle Indian school, and the Soldiers' Orphans' School, passed in review before the President.

Shortly after 3 o'clock the President and his party boarded the train for York, Pa. President Roosevelt stood on the platform of his car waving his hat as the train pulled out.

Had Bully Time.

Washington, Oc. 4.—The President was not in the least wearied by his day in Pennsylvania and expressed great satisfaction on his return this evening with the large crowds which listened to him this afternoon at Harrisburg and York in spite of the rains which prevailed at both places.

Senators Knox and Penrose, who accompanied the President from Washington remained at Harrisburg.

INSURANCE REBATES.

National Association of Commissioners in Session at Washington, D. C.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)
Washington, October 4.—The National Association of Insurance Commissioners today adopted a strong resolution against the practice of granting rebates, from which it was stated the public had suffered even at the hands of some of the biggest companies. It was explained that many insurance companies run regular get-rich-quick schemes under the guise of offering enormous dividends that are wholly impossible of realization. It was shown to be a fact that frequently some wealthy and influential man in a community is offered a secret or special contract reducing the cost of the insurance to him on the promise that he will work for the ends of the company in his locality. It further was represented that the smaller people who take the chance of getting the large dividends are induced to insure beyond their capacity to pay but that these dividends, which it was stated are secret rebates, go to the richer members of the community who, it was alleged, do not need them.

An address of general interest was made by Carlos S. Hardy, of Chicago, on "The Future of Fraternal Insurance." Mr. Hardy is secretary of the Supreme Lodge of the Endowment Rank Knights of Pythias. He said that unquestionably there was a necessity for raising the rates on fraternal insurance to meet the increasing charges upon it and that this advance was the only way to assure the future of the fraternal benefit associations. The association meets next year at Richmond, Va.

The following telegram has been received in Nashville from Mayor Lyons, of Mobile, in answer to an inquiry:
"All south coast people are in need of provisions, clothing, lumber, tools, etc., with which to begin life again. We could use cash to best advantage in purchasing needed supplies; can also use miscellaneous shipments."

NO ENDORSEMENT FOR PRESIDENT

Massachusetts Democratic Convention Had Only Praise for Bryan and Hearst.

SOME HISSES FOR LATTER

John B. Moran, Nominee of Prohibition Party and Independence League for Governor, Was Overwhelmingly Endorsed.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)
Boston, Mass., October 4.—A new era for the Massachusetts Democracy was inaugurated today by the State convention of that party, when, after a turbulent struggle over endorsing William Jennings Bryan and William R. Hearst, John B. Moran, district attorney for Suffolk county, who was already the nominee of the Prohibition party and the Independence League, was nominated for governor by acclamation. Save in one possible particular, Moran dominated the convention absolutely and completely and his so-called radical wing of the party, of which he is the sponsor, and the active leader, was indisputably in control. The Moran sentiment which the old party leaders had vainly sought to stem before the primaries swept everything before it. Two of the candidates on the State ticket, besides Mr. Moran, had been nominated by the Independence League.

The platform adopted was prolific in demands for reform and centered largely in those changes in the law which have been strongly favored by Moran during his services as district attorney, and in his declaration of principles when he announced his candidacy for governor. The resolutions held that it was Democracy's duty to wrest the government from the grasp of powerful hypocrites, who have posed as custodians of the national honor and who have drained mighty fortunes through the vile channels of their monopoly, frauds, thefts, poisonings and violence.

Neither Bryan nor Hearst was supported for the next Presidential nomination, in the platform, but were praised. The Bryan paragraph was greeted with cheers and handclapping, and a general demonstration which lasted over a minute, but when the first of the Hearst tribute was reached there were hisses and cries of "no, no," and "Bryan only."

Then the Hearst supporters, given new vigor by the memory that the Hearst Independence League had indorsed Moran for governor, almost drowned out the Bryan delegates.

The voice vote on the question of adopting the platform as read was a roar, rather than a chorus of ayes and noes. The vote was doubted and upon a rising vote being taken, the chair declared the platform adopted.
The convention was disrupted a second time over the endorsement of Mr.
Bryan for President. It came after all the nominations had been made and when many of the delegates had left for their homes. It was a move which seemed to split the Moran forces themselves.

It was started quietly by George Fred Williams, who moved that the convention go on record as favoring the nomination of Mr. Bryan by the national Democratic party of 1908.

The resolution was bitterly opposed by Granville S. McFarland, of Cambridge, the secretary of the Moran campaign committee. In unequivocal language he charged that the Bryan resolution had been presented with "felonious intent."

The resolution endorsing Bryan for President was declared carried after a voice vote and the convention adjourned.

NINETEEN DEAD IN MINE HORROR

Will Probably Be Many More Victims of Pocahontas Colliery Disaster.

FIFTY MORE STILL IN SHAFT

Sixty Coffins Have Been Sent to Scene in Anticipation of Fearful Extent of Explosion—Victims' Families Frantic.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)
Pocahontas, West Va., October 4.— Nineteen known dead and from thirty to forty more men entombed and doubtless all are dead. Is the situation up to a late hour tonight at the West Fork mines of the Pocahontas Collieries Company, where the explosion occurred late yesterday afternoon.
The dead include 13 whites and six negroes, two of the whites being rescuers.

The bodies of these men were recovered from the mines by the heroic work of the band of 35 men constituing a rescue party that work incessantly through the hours of night and day. It was not until 7:30 o'clock this morning that the rescuers reached a point near St. Paul where the explosion occurred. The work of rescue was very slow as the conditions confronting the party were difficult to surmount. Toward the middle of the evening the hope was expressed that all the bodies would be recovered by midnight.

The authorities anticipated the fearful extent of the casualties today by ordering a carload of coffins and burial supplies which are now on the way. The order is being rushed at Bluefield and burial supplies, which include sixty coffins, are expected to reach Pocahontas early tomorrow morning.

Superintendent William Leckie, of the mine who entered the mine as one of the rescuing party, had a narrow escape from death. He was overcome by the fumes and had to be carried out. Edward Jones, the inside mine workman, led the first rescue party and when that party failed to return in a reasonable time a second rescue party under Superintendent Leckie followed. Two of the Leckie party, John Odham and Ed Brown, were overcome by gas and died, and Leckie barely escaped with his life.

Then the third party was formed and continued the work. Meantime the first party had reached another entrance to the mine in safety and sent word over the mountain announcing that fact. All this time the work of bratticing the mine, necessary for carrying on the work of rescue, was being effectively carried out. Some confusion was caused in the determination of the exact number of men entombed by the fact that when the explosion occurred the exchange of shifts was in progress, added to which was the fact that a number of men escaped from the Tug Fork entrance.

The scenes around the mine were pitiful. Relatives and friends gathered in groups at the entrances and elsewhere, awaiting tidings of the victims and gave vent to their grief as the bodies one by one were brought out.

WARM WIRELETS.

Either a central bank of issue to be established and controlled by the government, or a similar measure enlarging the present note issue privilege of National banks in such a manner that their right of issue shall not vary with the ownership of United States bonds are the methods favored by the special currency commission appointed by the New York Chamber of Commerce last March to inquire into the condition of the currency and suggest desirable changes. The report was submitted at a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce.

A street car filled with terrified passengers dashed across New York yesterday at full speed while the motorman, Leo Schwartz, suddenly bereft of his reason, stood on the forward platform, flourishing a heavy controller bar and threatening to brain any one who approached him. He was finally subdued and the car brought to a stop after a desperate struggle with half a dozen policemen and street railway employees, during which several passengers jumped from the swiftly moving car and sustained painful bruises.

Negotiations which have been pending for several months were closed yesterday whereby the Jacksonville Electric Company agrees to transfer to the city of Jacksonville its franchise for electric lighting and will retire from further competition with the city plant, thus giving the city the exclusive right to furnish electricity to consumers. The Jacksonville Electric Company operates the street railway system there and has been furnishing lights and power to consumers in competition with the municipal plant, doing a business of $60,000 a year.

TERRIBLE WRECK NEAR TROY, N. Y.

Special With Troops for Cuba Crashed Into Regular Passenger.

FIVE KILLED, MANY INJURED

Soldiers Heroically Rescued People Pinned Under Wreckage—Bride of Wednesday Night Was Among Passengers Killed.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)
Lansingburg, N. Y., October 4.—Five passengers were killed outright and a score were injured in a rear-end collision between a regular passenger train and a military special on the Boston and Maine railroad, directly in front of the Lansingburg depot, north of Troy, about 5 o'clock today.

The collision took place on a heavy grade and sharp curve. The passenger train was one that leaves Boston daily at 9:30 A. M. for Albany. It consisted of five cars, a baggage car, smoker, day coach and two parlor cars, and today was about one hour late when it reached Lansingburg station.

Without, apparently, any warning the "special" came thundering along with 18 cars and crashed into the passenger train, smashing the last two cars which were Pullmans, like eggshells. Both these cars were swept from the track and rolled down the embankment.

The engine of the special kept on for a dozen yards and then turned turtle, he front end plunging into the ground and the car behind being telescoped by the tender.

The special was drawing four troops of the 14th United States Cavalry from Fort Ethan Allen to Newport News where they are to embark for Cuba. The soldiers quickly got to work to rescue the injured. In a comparatively short time most of those pinned down by the wreckage were on their way to the Leonard hospital, near the scene of the wreck.

One man's grief was pitiable. His name was J. W. Dacey, and he ran up and down the track crying for his wife. In a few minutes her lifeless form was identified. They had been married last night at Arlington, Mass., and were on their honeymoon, having planned an extended trip.

VETERANS OF WAR WITH SPAIN.

All Soldiers of Southern States Specially Invited to Encampment.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)
Washington, October 4.—The executive board of the national encampment committee, United Spanish War Veterans, at its session today extended a general invitation to all the soldiers of the Southern States who served in the war with Spain to attend the national encampment to be held here beginning Monday October 8th.

The board also decided to take up at the national encampment sessions the question of organizing many camps in the South during the coming year. Southern soldiers will be especially entertained by the encampment officers. Among the first to signify their intention of coming to Washington next Monday were Colonel Thompson, of Columbia, commanding the second regiment of infantry, National Guard of South Carolina, with other officers from that State. President Roosevelt will be invited to be the guest of honor at the banquet to be held at the close of the encampment.

EARTHQUAKE SOMEWHERE.

Seismographs in Three Places Indicate Serious Disturbance.

(By Cable to The Morning Star.) Goettingen, Russia, October 4.—The seismograph at the observatory here today registered a powerful and quick earthquake 14,000 miles distance from this town. The vibrations lasted two hours.

London, October 4.—Cabling from Sydney, N. S. W., correspondent of the Daily Mail says:

"Seismographs here and at Perth recorded an earthquake Tuesday at noon lasting for two hours. The government astronomers believe there was a disturbance somewhere eclipsing the disaster at San Francisco.

The Daily Mail says there was a similar record made by the seismo-graph in the John Milne's observatory on the Isle of Wight.
